

Appointment of GM Human Resources

Following the retirement of Lynda Webb, Briscoe Group is pleased to announce the appointment of Aston Moss to the role of General Manager Human Resources.

Aston brings a wealth of knowledge gained from a broad range of senior HR and commercial roles across a number of different industries including retail, tertiary education, hospitality, entertainment, and logistics.

Aston has an extensive background in both Human Resources and retailing, including having worked for Woolworths, both here and in Australia.

Currently with Fonterra, Aston will join Briscoe Group on 12th October.

Aston's appointment underlines our commitment to the continued growth and development of our people and we are delighted to welcome him to the Group.
